

Sarah Friend

Consultant The Partners Group

Sarah enjoys building long-term relationships with her clients and partnering with them to create valued employee benefit programs. Sarah has a strong reputation for her commitment to service and a unique ability to communicate complex messages effectively to a broad audience.

Education	B.A. Business and Communications Western Oregon University
Business Experience	Before joining The Partners Group in 2007, Sarah worked for 11 years with one of Oregon's leading health plans in a variety of sales, operation and management positions. Sarah has a wealth of healthcare experience working with large, complex employers.
Special Expertise	Employee Benefits Services
Industry and Community Leadership	Sarah is an active board member for the American Red Cross, Oregon Trail Chapter and volunteers frequently in the community